

ANDREA HATHAZI

Education Background

June 2008 Phd in Psychology, title of doctoral thesis Developing communication skills at children with deafblindness

M.A. in Inclusive Education, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences, Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca

B.A. in Special Education, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences, Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca

Work Experience

2009- present, Lecturer at the Special Education Department, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences, Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj- Napoca, Romania

2012- present, Manager of Long Distance Education, Special Education specialization, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences, Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj- Napoca, Romania

2007-2009 Teacher Assistant, Special Education Department, Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences, Babes-Bolyai University in Cluj- Napoca, Romania

1999-2003, Special education teacher, Coordinator of deafblind unit, School for the Visually Impaired children in Cluj-Napoca, Romania

Professional Certifications/Designations

Certificate for Private Practice in Special Education issued by the Romanian Psychologists Association in 01.02. 2011

Certificate of Trainer issued by SC Learn and Vision SRL Cluj-Napoca in 21.07.2011

Certificate of Auditor in the domain of quality issued by SC TQA Services SRL, Bucharest in 1.02.2010

Publications

2012 Coordinator of volume „Communication in the context of multiple disabilities”, in the collection of Education of people with multiple disabilities, Cluj- Napoca, Editura Presa Universitara Clujeana

2011

Article „Milieu Method as a natural approach in the development of communication at children with multiple disabilities” in Maria Anca (edit.), Studii de psihopedagogie specială, Psihopedagogia specială între practică și cercetare, vol. IV, Cluj- Napoca, Presa Universitară Clujeană.

2010

Study „The use of active strategies in developing learning and communication experiences for children” in Studia Universitatis Babes- Bolyai, Psychologia –Paedagogia, Ediția nr. , pag.215-222

2009

Article „New approaches in the therapy of behavior disorders based on the theory of attachment” in Transparency and Communication in the education and socio-professional inclusion of individuals with visual impairment”, Cluj - Napoca: Ed. Risoprint, pag.39-43

Chapter in collective volume „Characteristics of the learning environment and optimisation of functional vision at children with low vision” in The universe of Braille system in the actual context of special education, Preda, v. (coord.),Cluj-Napoca ,Editura Presa Universitara Clujeana,pag.126-136

Awards

Diploma of Excellency for the Contribution in the domain of education of children with deafblindness/ multiple sensory impairments awarded by the Ministry of Education, Research and Innovation in Romania

Organizations/Associations

Member of ICEVI (International Council for Education of People with Visual Impairment), ICEVI Contact Person for Romania, ICEVI Balkan Representative, Member of the Board of ICEVI Europe

Member of Deafblind International

Member of the Romanian Psychologists Association

Personal aspiration for ICEVI-Europe

To determine for ICEVI members the identity of belonging to a professional organization that is resourceful, supportive within a network that offers them opportunities and the chance to exchange ideas and best practices.