

Darija Udovicic Mahmuljin is Regional Director Europe & Eurasia at Perkins International. She has over 20 years of experience of working in the field of multiple disabilities, visual impairment and deaf blindness.

She is an experienced director with a history of international activities, leading projects and research. Darija has extensive knowledge and experience in deafblindness and multiple disability assessment, early intervention and educational programs. She has established program that provides highly specialized and comprehensive services to children with visual impairments and other multiple disabilities as well as deaf blind children and young adults. She was executive of that program - Mali dom – Zagreb that is nowadays regional resource center. Darija has developed and led numerous national and international projects with emphasize on getting professionals from different scientific and academic background work together on different range of topics related to the improvement of the education and rehabilitation of infants, children and young adults. The projects she was in charge were in partnership with lots of different institutions, and were led in partnership with renown organizations such as UNICEF, USAID, CBM, IRC, and many others. She is very active in national and international associations and have presented at numerous conferences. Among others she is Board member of Croatian Academy of Neurodevelopmental Rehabilitation, member of Early Intervention IG of EASPD (Europeans Association of Service Providers), EURLYAD.

Darija Udovicic Mahmuljin

Perkins International

Regional Director Europe&Eurasia

Darija.Udovicic@Perkins.org

www.perkinsinternational.org

Address:

Perkins International USA

175 North Beacon Street

Watertown, MA 02472

Regional office Europe /Eurasia

Nad lipom 12 b ,

10000 Zagreb, Croatia

Phone : + 1 617 99 6545

+ 385 91 592 1541

Skype: darija65